Mr. Editor.—I see that efforts are making by some of the Press, together with those gentlemen styled brokers in the stock market, to bring about a general panic, and to market for sale on Monday, hoping thereby to break down the opposition of those who are opposing their schemes; and being myself opposed to all monopoly, and especially to those in the means of life, I hope to do my best to expose such a plot. Monday, 11th inst., there was some four hundred head of cattle in the yards, and all sold for cash, at good prices, and not half enough to supply the demand.—New-York, Dec. 12, 1854. AN ANTI MONOPOLIST.

The National Disease of America!—DYSPEPSIA, in all its stages, and innumerable symptoms, is promptly cured by Dr. MCCLINTOCK'S celebrated DYSPEPTIC ELIXIR.
This is a purely vegetable remedy, used with never failing certainty, in a large practice of thirty years, by Prof. MCCLIN-TOCK, late of the Philadelphia Schools of Medicine. Price, in pint bottles, $1. Sold by all Druggists, and by A. CUSHMAN & Co., No. 122 Fulton-st., New York.

Preservation.—Prevention is easier than cure. It is said and the saying is worthy belief, that the result of in-attention, aid is a disease which very slight care only may prevent. Those who have reason to fear the disease, and are not willing to incur the risk of BOOGIE'S HY-PERION FLUID, which is now universally proved to be the best preventive of baldness, the most reliable restorer, and the most approved beautifier, know its experience. The Confidential Agent of the BOOGIE'S HYPERION FLUID,
